with edge inscribed: ASST.-SURG$^{N.}$ S. WALKER, N. Z. MIL. (New Zealand Militia), both fine, the former extremely rare (being one of twenty-one only issued.) In case with newspaper clippings, &c.

 The New Zealand decoration is very handsome, being in the form of a silver Maltese Cross, with a six-pointed gold star on each limb; in the centre, encircled by a gold laurel wreath, a convex boss inscribed NEW ZEALAND; the Cross is surmounted by a gold crown (in this case very slightly damaged), which is attached to a crimson riband by a gold-fronted silver bar with V-shaped connection.

"For conspicuous gallantry in the performance of his duties as Assistant-Surgeon on many occasions during the Campaign of 1868-69, and notably at the successful attack upon the position and encampment of Titoko-Waru at Otauto, on the 13th March, 1869, where he was exposed to a very heavy fire, and bore himself with great courage."
